Goldfinch Brothers, Inc. Promotes Jennifer Howell to Controller

Everett, Washington, January 16, 2017 – Goldfinch Brothers, Inc. is pleased to announce the promotion of Jennifer Howell to the position of Controller. Jennifer joined the company in mid-2015 and rapidly gained recognition for her ability to analyze processes and propose solutions to assist the company during a period of rapid growth.

Jennifer's contributions were a key factor in the successful conversion in January of 2016 to Sage 100 accounting software. Goldfinch Bros., Inc. President Scott Murphy praised Jennifer saying, "Jennifer has been a key leader on our team, and her efforts have been a big part of our successful updates this past year. Moving forward Jennifer will provide financial leadership and direction to ensure continued growth and success. She is highly interested in the improvement of company processes and financial reporting to ensure all managers have access to the most current and accurate information to enable business decisions resulting in favorable outcomes."

Jennifer earned her BA in Business Administration and Finance from Washington State University in 1997. Before joining the Goldfinch team, Jennifer honed her accounting skills working over eighteen (18) years with Primo Construction in Port Angeles, Washington.
